Wool in Schools ('The Wool Shed')

The Wool in Schools programme is part of a global 'Campaign for Wool' and is made possible through the support of PGG Wrightsons.

The Wool Shed is a converted shipping container and is at school until the end of this week, being manned by the PGG Wrightson reps Ian Hopkins and Eric Constable, and coordinated for us by Mrs Teresa Somerville. Although targeted at the Y7/8 level, all of our classes are having a look through it at some stage.

PARENTS, you are most welcome to pop in and have a look too at any stage during school hours. (It's locked up before and after school).

Y 3/4 Mr Weston: Draw to be confirmed

Team for this week (can play up to 8 in this grade): Jessica Keenan, Codel Court, Emma Livingston, Harry Weston, Hawaiiki Tattersall-Walker, Joey Keenan, Lyrik Maraku, Hayden Whinn.

Not playing this week but definitely next week: Noah Spencer, Josh Dalley

Y 5/6 Mr Keenan – Draw to be confirmed

Team for this week (must play just the 6 in this grade): Josh Keenan, James Trow, Peter George, Andrew George, Boston Linklater, Oliver Bunn

Not playing this week but definitely next week: Jack Goodwin and Riley Someerville

It may be we have enough numbers to enter two Yr 5/6 teams from next week?

ALL CRICKETERS OF ALL AGES

Parents please sign up to receive cricket alerts on the school app as this will be the avenue for all communications re reminders, changes to draw, cancellations etc.

If you cannot receive alerts on your phone, please let me know so you can be contacted by other means re the above.

- S Lewis (Cricket Coordinator)

Home & School Association

Tea Towels/Aprons, Playcentre Cookbook Fundraiser

All those who pre-ordered any of these items, they are now available for collection (with payment – cheque or correct cash please) at the school office. And they are also now available for sale at the school office.

School Grounds Off Limits from 5pm of Shemozzle Day

We engage a security firm to patrol our grounds on the above day. It's just that in the past visitors to the town on this day haven't always respected school grounds and property – so now we close the grounds from 5pm.

Y6-8 Student to Denmark 2018

A reminder that applications for this close on Tuesday 31 October.

Applications details available from school or online as included in the most recent Community Newsletter.

Some Classes to St Josephs Taihape Wednesday 1 November To watch their production of 'Shrek Jnr'

Some of our classes (definitely including Rooms 7 & 8) will be travelling to Taihape next Wednesday 11.30ish and be back by 3pm to view the above show.

More details in the next day or so!

Please can we have all school jackets & singlets back to school – and anyone with Saturday sports uniforms, please could these be returned also. Thank you.
